Because of its varied terrain, it offers exciting adventures that cross creeks and plains through to hills and steep mountains. Some parts of the property have farmland with grazing sheep and cattle. One of the best parts of the property borders and includes the Cobbadah creek, which flows through the property and features dry creek beds, spring-fed dams, and even a waterfall. This property is located a 5-minute drive from the village of Upper Horton. Barraba is the closest town; just 30 minutes away. Alternatively, Bingara is 35 minutes away. Any vehicle can reach this location; however, visitors will need a four-wheel drive to get around the property. You can also bring motorbikes, quads, Polaris, or buggies for greater mobility, except in hilly or steep terrain, where their use is prohibited. There are many beautiful camping spots throughout the property that offer scenic landscapes and visitors can choose any camping site upon arrival. However, sleeping quarters or shearers' huts are not available. Visitors are invited to use the firewood that lies around the property for making campfires. You are welcome to collect and use it free of charge. Visitors should bring complete camping and hunting gear to enjoy the most comfortable and memorable experience. The property owners don't have supplies available. Hunters can sight in their hunting gear around their campsite, as long as all safety precautions are observed. They can also engage in target shooting.

Property Owners Rules Although rules are in the property access book, the property owners point out that the following rules are crucial: During hunting: No shooting at or within 500 meters of grazing cattle and sheep. Respect property boundaries. Do not shoot anywhere near the main house or owners' pets or livestock. Hunt respectfully. Dogs must be tied up when not in use for hunting. Do not drink alcohol and hunt at the same time. When driving: Avoid driving on crops. Stay away from and don't get close to grazing livestock. The use of bikes or any vehicles in hilly or steep terrain is prohibited. While staying in the property: Leave gates how you find them. If it's open leave it open!!! If it's closed, close it!!! Take all rubbish with you and dispose of it in the designated area. During campfires: Be mindful when starting a campfire or any outdoor fire. Put out the fire once you've finished with it. Obey the rules if there are fire restrictions, especially total fire bans. Items of Interest on the Property The property owners describe the landscape as offering magical views over the valley and abundant wildlife. It is a place for families to enjoy bush walking, bird watching, stargazing at night, and riding their motorbikes, quads, Polaris, or buggies. Property History and Information This property has been owned by the current owners and their family since the 1900s. They started by grazing cattle and sheep and have become well-known for producing quality livestock. Over time, they developed the campground on this property and now share this beautiful property with visitors. Their mission is to help preserve the environment and maintain the delicate balance of the ecosystem by allowing the hunting of predators and prey. Tourist Attractions Throughout the year, Upper Horton Sporting Club hosts cricket and tennis competitions, camp drafting, rodeos, dog trials, and motorcycle pony express all year round. One of the most exciting events is the New Year's Eve Rodeo at Upper Horton. It is world-renowned for producing some of Australia's toughest cowboys. The local area also offers beautiful places that are well worth a visit, such as Mount Kapular National Park, Gwydir River, and Copeton Dam, which offer water sports and fishing competitions. Barraba is known as an arts and culture hub and visitors can check out the Barraba Silo mural and the Water Diviner. The artwork also features the endangered Regent Honeyeater bird. Additional Supplies Barraba and Bingara have fuel stations and local IGAs if you require additional supplies. The village of Upper Horton Sporting Club offers dinner most Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings. It is a 5-minute drive from the property. The Upper Horton Sports Club is open at 5am during winter and 5.30am during summer. It is recommended that visitors come well-equipped and bring all the necessities they require. It's also recommended you check the opening hours of the fuel outlets and IGAs in Barraba and Bingara before arrival.
